Workshop 27 The application process at PwC

Speaker

Etienne Nigg

Human Capital Marketing & Experienced Hire Recruiter, PwC

Etienne Nigg holds a Bachelor in International Business from Grenoble Ecole de Management. He grew up in a highly international environment, having lived in China, Liechtenstein and the UK. Etienne started his career at Nike where he was employed as a Project Manager, setting up professional Sports Camps across mainland China. He later started his recruiting career with Michael Page in the UK before joining the Adecco Group in Zürich. Today, Etienne is responsible for the recruitment of Internal Firm Services, as well as Assurance Experiences Hires, at PwC.

Time & Venue

Monday 30.10.2017 – 12:45 - 14:15
HEG Arc, Campus Arc 1, room 352 (3rd floor)

Objective

This practical workshop will focus on the recruiting process at PwC. Participants will learn:

- Which stages an application passes through at PwC
- How to improve their CV and covering letter (in English)
- How to prepare for a job interview (in English)

Participants will prepare a mock application for an open position at PwC (CV, covering letter, pitch for a job interview). These applications will be commented on during the workshop.

Mr. Nigg will be available after the workshop in room 352 to answer any questions the participants have.

Registration

This workshop is open to all HEG Arc students or alumni.

Registration is compulsory, only by email at carriere.gestion@he-arc.ch. The number of participants is limited to 20 students/alumni.
